

1. The God Conversation
Exodus 3:1-15

What do you believe/ know/hope about God? How do you experience God in your life today and/or in the past? How does belief in God shape how you understand yourself and others? How does your knowledge about God motivate you to action in the world? In Moses' story, God speaks through a burning bush. What does God's voice sound like to you?

2. The Gift Conversation
1 Corinthians 12

Do you have a sense of your spiritual gifts and natural talents? What are they? Who has armed these gifts and talents in you? How have you used these gifts and talents to benefit yourself? How have you used these gifts and talents to benefit others? What do you want to do with your gifts and talents?

3. The Passion Conversation
Micah 6:8

What is something that you do well and enjoy doing? What are some things (social injustice issues) that really "fire you up" or bother you? What are some things that you could talk about/write about /think about/do for long periods of time and never get bored? Has anyone ever commended you for your enthusiasm about something? What was it? If you could give a million dollars to someone/ something, what would it be? Why? What would you want them to do with the money?

Questions for conversations about calling and discipleship

By Rev. Ashlee Alley Crawford

Asking questions can help us unlock our deep gladness and how we experience the world's deep hunger.

~ Frederick Buechner

Everyone wants to spend their lives doing something that has meaning, uses their gifts, and is something that they enjoy doing. God's call for all people is, first, to be in relationship with God, and second, to work in the world. These conversation starters are meant to help you walk alongside someone as they go deeper in discipleship and discerning God's call.

4. The Spiritual Growth Conversation Romans 12:1-2

In the Wesleyan tradition, we speak of "acts of piety" (bible study, prayer, fasting, worship, etc.) as ways to grow in relationship with God. What acts of piety do you practice? What would it look like for you to connect with God daily? How do you make that happen? How would you spend that time? Who in your life could you commit to staying accountable with in spiritual practices? What do you want from God in your spiritual life?

What does offering your life as a "living sacrifice" mean?

5. The Opportunities Conversation Colossians 3:17

Has anyone ever given you an opportunity that allowed you to use your gifts in leadership and service? Why did they offer it to you? Who do you know that has your "dream job"/"dream service opportunity"? What would you say to them if they were here now? What kind of opportunities are available for you in using your gifts, talents, and passions in the world in the month/months ahead? What could 2 or 3 people in your community do about the injustice issue that "fires you up" in the 2 months ahead? What are you willing to do to open up more opportunities?
